In the crag "Amante Stregata del Cai" there are pitches on gray slabs. The grades can satisfy everyone.

Avvicinamento: From Iglesias take the SS 126, until the km 54.100 to Fluminimaggiore follow a small road on the right that with a distance of about 1.5 km leads to the archaeological site of the temple of Antas. From here, take the dirt road. When you arrive at a T-junction turn left towards Arenas. Going straight, after some ups and downs, you see the crag of Punta Pilocca on the left, locate a sign indicating Punta Pilocca hanging from a tree. Continue by car to the flat where you can see the remains of the mines, then take the first road on the left that rises quickly and makes a bend to the left, short straight and when the road bends to the right you can park close at the curve. Find a trail that goes into the woods (stone cairns) and you will soon reach the first pitches of the crag that continues long left.
